Dear Irene,

We would like to express our appreciation of your work in completing the sale and purchase of the above properties.

Your commitment, professionalism and attention to detail filled us with the confidence that both transactions would be completed successfully despite the issues that arose, particularly during the purchase of

We both found you a pleasure to deal with and you never failed to return any of our calls or emails whether late in the evening or even at weekends.

Based upon our experience we would have no hesitation in recommending Balfour + Manson and indeed we would not contemplate using anyone else for any of our future requirements.

Yours faithfully

Colin D Watt Linda Watt
